

Curriculum Vitae of the Applicant

Full Name: Nazar Ameen Mohammed

Date of Birth: 25/10/1983

Job Title: lecturer at the University of Duhok / College of Law and Politics

Qualifications and Expertise:

- I studied Bachelor Degree at the University of Duhok/ College of Law and Politics and graduated in 2007.
- In the late 2007, I started working as an associate researcher at the college of Law and Politics/ University of Duhok.
- In 2010, I successfully completed my Master Degree in Private Law from the College of Law and Politics/ University of Duhok, and Private Law is the area of my interest.
- Afterwards, I taught two years (2011and 2012) at the College of Law and Politics/ University of Duhok, this was before I obtain a scholarship to study PhD abroad in the late 2012, and this opportunity was offered me under (HCDP) programme that is sponsored by the Kurdistan Regional Government.
- In 2018, I successfully completed my PhD in Private Law from the University of Stirling in the United Kingdom, and graduated on the 23rd of November 2018.
- I taught one semester at INTO institution in Stirling. INTO is an educational institution based in Glasgow, and provides learning services to foundation students those who are at their pre-university stage.

- I have experience with (English to Arabic) translation, as I worked (for some time) as a freelance interpreter for two agencies (Forth Valley Centre & Sign Language Interactions company) one is based in Glasgow and the other one in Falkirk county. These language agencies provide interpretation services to NHS appointments (health appointments) and appointments with the Governmental departments (Council, Home Office...etc).
- Currently I am a teaching staff member of the College of Law and Politics/ University of Duhok since 2010. For this year I teach general English language for different stages, and rights in Rem in Arabic.
- Confirmation letters (documents and references) of the above- mentioned qualifications and expertise are available to be provided where necessary.

Contact details: Mob: 07504695307

Email Address: nazar.ameen@uod.ac

Nazar Ameen Mohammed

27/12/2019